

Church Schools' Festival

Zenith visited Lincoln Cathedral to take part in the annual Church Schools' Festival.

"I was shocked by the delicate, stained glass windows and how detailed they were."

"I found it amazing when we were driving there as you could see the cathedral from miles away and it was awesome!"

"I was amazed by the beautiful wall carvings and the magnificent structure."

"When I first saw the Lincoln Cathedral, I was amazed at the scale of the building and also, how long ago it was made."
